Pre-eligibility requirements

To be eligible to apply for OAGDS the organisation applying must:

- have a voluntary governing body, and
- be a registered charity with the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission \(ACNC\) and conform to the ACNC Governance Standards.

You must complete all the required fields to progress through the application, to address the criteria.

DFAT undertakes a pre-eligibility check to assist with the initial phase of the assessment process. Where an organisation does not satisfy the pre-eligibility requirements, the application will be returned to the applicant to address the relevant areas. The organisation is able to re-submit the application at a later date.

If this is the case, the OAGDS team will contact the organisation, informing them of the process, respond to questions and provide guidance on the pre-eligibility requirements.

These are all required fields which must be completed prior to progressing through the application, to addressing the criteria.

Eligibility Criteria

There are 4 criteria that the organisation must meet in order to be recommended as an 'approved organisation':

Criteria 1: The organisation delivers overseas aid activities.

Criteria 2: The organisation has the capacity to manage and deliver overseas aid activities.

Criteria 3: Overseas aid activities are delivered in partnership with in-country organisations, based on principles of cooperation, mutual respect and shared accountability.

Criteria 4: The organisation has appropriate safeguards in place and manages risks associated with child protection and terrorism.

The answers you provide in this application will provide the basis of assessment by DFAT against these criteria.

Criteria 1: The organisation delivers overseas aid activities.

Criteria 1

The organisation will implement development and/or humanitarian assistance activities in developing countries.

Development activities will:

- › demonstrate fair distribution;
- › be informed by local people; and
- › deliver sustained or lasting benefits, such as through capacity-building and/or an exit strategy.

Humanitarian assistance activities will:

- › be in response to a humanitarian crisis;
- › meet an immediate need; and
- › have an exit strategy.

Where an organisation supports activities that are ineligible under OAGDS (such as partisan political or proselytism), the organisation will demonstrate its ability to separately manage these activities, such as through separate budgets, expenditure reports and communications with supporters.

separate budgets, expenditure reports and communications with supporters.

Criteria 2: The organisation has the capacity to manage and deliver overseas aid activities.

Criteria 2

The organisation will demonstrate its ability to manage and deliver its aid activities. This includes:

- › Planning and appraisal - activities are documented in a project plan or similar, and critical review is carried out to determine whether activities go ahead.
- › Budgeting - activities have a budget, and plans and budgets are reviewed before approval for support is made.
- › Implementation - dialogue with and support for project partners throughout activity implementation is undertaken and changes to plans are made as needed.
- › Monitor and tracking of progress - implementation is monitored; progress is reported and reviewed periodically.
- › Financial management - activity expenditure is reported and reviewed periodically.
- › Assessment - the success or otherwise of activities is assessed, lessons are learned and shared appropriately.

The points provided above are examples of good activity management, and the assessment of organisations will be based on the relevant context, including scale and complexity of activities and operating environment. Evidence of capacity will generally take the form of a track record of successful activities.

Applicants that have partnership arrangements with other Australian organisations will provide sufficient information on their respective roles to allow for an assessment of the applicant organisation's capacity.

Criteria 3: Overseas aid activities are delivered in partnership with in-country organisations, based on principles of cooperation, mutual respect and shared accountability.

Criteria 3

The organisation will demonstrate how it works with developing country partner organisations or groups, not just individuals. The organisation and the project partner will both contribute and add value to the delivery of aid activities, with shared values and objectives for aid activities.

The organisation will demonstrate how it cooperates with in-country partners to plan, implement and track progress of the aid activities. Documented arrangements will exist outlining the objectives of the partnership, the roles of each party, reporting requirements and financial management arrangements.

The organisation will demonstrate regular communication between the project partner and Australian organisation, and partners will be aware of the Australian provenance of the funds and support.

Criteria 4: The organisation has appropriate safeguards in place and manages risks associated with child protection and terrorism.

Criteria 4a: Child protection

The organisation will have a child protection policy and procedures in place that promote child protection and child safe practices. Those who have direct contact with children will undergo Australian Federal Police (AFP) criminal history checks. Where there is direct contact with children or the project and partners are working with children with disabilities or children in institutionalised care, additional child safe practices are expected including:

- › that the organisation has discussed child protection risks and management procedures with project partners; and
- › project partners have procedures in place to promote child protection and child safe practices including child safe recruitment practices, criminal history checks or equivalent, supervised visits involving children, etc.

Criteria 4b: Counter terrorism and sanctions

The organisation has a counter terrorism and sanctions policy and procedures in place that manage the risks associated with terrorism and sanctions. Funds do not support terrorism or individuals and entities subject to sanctions. The organisation screens developing country partners, key individuals and entities receiving funds against the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade \(DFAT\) Consolidated List and terrorist organisations listed under the Criminal Code.

The organisation will discuss terrorism risks and management procedures with project partners and will verify that its project partners undertake terrorism screening of key downstream partners or suppliers receiving funds against the DFAT Consolidated List and terrorist organisations listed under the Criminal Code.

Organisation has a counter terrorism policy and/or procedures in place that manage the risks associated with terrorism.

For example:

- funds transfers are authorised;
- funds are being sent to a authorised bank account/reputable financial institution;
- advice of payments is made to developing country partners receiving the funds;
- a receipt or letter acknowledging funds received; and
- an acquittals process for all funds expended by the developing country partner.

C4.9 There is a risk that funds designated for aid activities could be used by terrorist organisations or to finance terrorist activities. How does the organisation address this risk? *

Word count:
Must be no more than 200 words

C4.10 Provide a counter terrorism policy ratified by the governing body or guidelines outlining practices required. *
